

Field Visit to NLUJ under National University Students' Skill Development Programme (10th July 2017)

Legal Aid and Awareness Committee with the help of Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) organized its first presentation on the topic of Right to Privacy as a part of National University Skill Development Programme. The programme was organised by the University and was attended by the Mr. SohanLal Sharma (Registrar of the University), Prof. I.P. Massey(Dean of the University) Dr. Anjali Thanvi(Chairperson of the Legal Aid and Awareness Committee), TISS Representatives and teachers of other colleges in Jodhpur. The Presentation was delivered by Ragini Agarwal, Keshav Malpani and other members of Legal Aid and Awareness Committee with the aim of providing the students with information about the risk they are prone to face while browsing online.

