

LEX QUEST 2.0

The Legal Aid and Awareness Committee (LAAC), National Law University, Jodhpur in furtherance of its objective to bridge the gap between common man and difficulties associated with the legal field, organized the second edition of Lex Quest, an Inter-School Quiz Competition, for the students of Jodhpur. The aim was to increase legal literacy among the young generation. The participants, for the better guidance in preparation, were provided with a book “Juris Liber” which was prepared by the members of Committee. The Competition was divided in two phases. The respective schools participating in the event conducted the preliminary round on August 2, 2018. The final rounds of the competition were organized on 12th August, 2018 in the National Law University, Jodhpur wherein top 2 teams from each school were invited to showcase their legal knowledge.

The competition which was open for students of classes 9-12, witnessed participation by over 250 students. The evaluation of answer sheets of the preliminary rounds was done by the members of the Committee. In the final round of the competition, the students were quizzed about fundamental rights, current affairs and landmark judgements given by the Courts. At the end, Shri Aurobindo School emerged out as the winner of Lex Quest 2.0. The second prize was also bagged by Shri Aurobindo School. The third prize of the competition was bagged by the team from St Austin. The winners were felicitated by Dr. Anjali Thanvi (Chairperson of LAAC) with mementos, merit-certificates and cash prizes worth 5000 rupees. . The competition played an important role in imparting legal literacy to students who would in future, emerge as the pillars upholding the sanctity and cherished ideals of our country.
