The Legal Aid and Awareness Committee (LAAC) of the National Law University, Jodhpur is a student-run body working to provide free legal aid to the weaker section. Our objective is to raise awareness about government legislations and legal remedies attached to it. In order to increase legal literacy amongst school students, we organize “Lex Quest”, an inter-school quiz competition. In the past two editions, we have received participation of more than 1000 students of Jodhpur.

The quiz consists of two stages. The first is the intra-school stage which is a written round conducted at the respective schools and second is an inter-school stage which is an oral round conducted at NLUJ.
